A. Course Description:

This course entails a historical survey of Christian spirituality from the post-apostolic age to the period preceding the Reformation. Parallels are demonstrated between the spiritual movements that emerged during this historical period and contemporary figures and movements that continue to demonstrate today the charism of these earlier individuals and schools of spirituality.

B. Goals:

1. To investigate the main trends, issues and developments in Christian Spirituality from post-apostolic age to the end of the fourteenth century.
2. To explore the question: "How have Christians throughout history understood what it is to seek and know God?"
3. To seek a deeper understanding and appreciation of the heritage of Christian Spirituality in order to shed light on, and give assistance to, our present spiritual journey, both communal and personal.
4. To provide a framework within which to appreciate various spiritual schools, movements, and writings both in themselves and in their relationship with one another.
5. To make contact with the history and writings of the great saints and mystics of the Christian tradition as well as those of the principal schools of spirituality.
6. To provide knowledge and encouragement so that students can develop their own personal spirituality.
7. To begin to develop in the students the skills that will assist them to serve as spiritual guides to other people in their future ministries.

Knowledge

1. To know the historical and cultural contexts within which the great spiritual guides developed their spiritual writings.
2. To understand and acquaint oneself with the primary texts of great spiritual authors, communities and movements in the tradition of spiritual theology.
3. To grasp the connection between classical spiritual teachings and their contemporary expressions, understanding both the continuity and the differences.
4. To understand and appreciate the variety of spiritual paths witnessed to by the many schools and movements within the one Christian Catholic Tradition.
5. To understand and appreciate the teachings of other spiritual traditions within both the Christian and other faith traditions.

6. To have a knowledge of the aberrations and errors within the Christian Spiritual Tradition as well as their remedies, in order to be able to detect and address similar aberrations and errors today.
7. To understand the nature of spiritual theology, its methodology and the various theological distinctions in order to develop tools for a critical analysis of texts, communities, structures and movements.

Skills

1. To enable the student to interpret and analyze a primary text of a great spiritual writer in the social, cultural and ecclesial context of its time.
2. To enable the student to detect and understand those unchanging values of the Christian Spiritual Tradition that are still found in our time, while being able to know and set in context those dimensions of the Tradition which are historically and culturally conditioned.
3. To enable the student to articulate, in both oral and written forms, the principal elements of the Christian Catholic Tradition of spiritual theology.
4. To enable students to express their own personal spirituality as related to the authentic spiritual tradition of the Church, and at the same time to be able to appreciate those authentic spiritualities to which they are not drawn, but to which they may be called to minister.
5. To enable the student to appreciate the spiritualities of the Christian East and West, , as well as those found in our secular society.
6. To enable the student to detect those movements of the spirits that are divisive and destructive of the path toward union with God, so that he/she may be able to cooperate with the Holy Spirit in the healing and reconciliation needed to recover authenticity and life.

Values and Attitudes

1. To acquire a love for the working of the Spirit of Jesus Christ throughout our whole Christian tradition.
2. To have a critical openness to, and capacity to learn from, both the good and bad in our Christian Catholic Tradition of spirituality.
3. To appreciate the great variety of ways the Holy Spirit is present: in the human heart, in our communal life together, in societal structures, in social movements throughout our human history, and in the beauty of creation.
4. To value one's personal spiritual life as a response to the invitation to life in union with our Triune God, and to nourish this grace-filled life by prayer and an ever more faithful living of the Gospel.

F. University Regulations and Support Services:

Scholastic offences are taken seriously and students are directed to read the appropriate policy, specifically, the definition of what constitutes a Scholastic Offence, at the following Web site: http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/pdf/academic_policies/appeals/scholastic_discipline_undergrad.pdf

All required papers may be subject to submission for textual similarity review to the commercial plagiarism detection software under license to the University for the detection of plagiarism. All papers submitted for such checking will be included as source documents in the reference database for the purpose of detecting plagiarism of papers subsequently submitted to the system. Use of the service is subject to the licensing agreement, currently between The University of Western Ontario and Turnitin.com <http://www.turnitin.com>.”

Students are responsible for knowing the University’s academic policies and regulations and any particularities of their own course of study. Ignorance of these policies is not an excuse for any violation thereof. The following policies are particularly important to note:

Submission of Assignments: It is the responsibility of the student to organize his or her work so that the assignments are completed on time. A penalty of 10% of the value of the assignment will be deducted for each day it is overdue without permission.

Plagiarism: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt by quotation marks and/or footnotes. Plagiarism is a major academic offense. Students may be required to submit their work in electronic form for plagiarism checking.

Support Services:

Students who are in emotional/mental health distress should refer to Mental Health@Western: <http://www.uwo.ca/uwocom/mentalhealth/> for a complete list of options about how to obtain help. University Students Council provides many valuable support services for students (including the health insurance plan) <http://westernusc.ca/services/>. Information about Counselling and Student Development, including Services for Students with Disabilities at King’s is available at <http://www.kings.uwo.ca/about-kings/who-we-are/administrative-departments/dean-of-students/>

These services are not meant to replace those offered at St. Peter’s Seminary, but may be beneficial to our students after consultation with the appropriate instructors, administrators and formators.

Introduction to Spiritual Theology 5162B

“Presentation Paper” Outline

This paper will convey the outline and text of a Lenten Evening of Reflection you may offer in a parish on the spirituality of one Spiritual Master and how this may inspire or shed light upon the spiritual journey of parishioners today. The paper is to be a minimum of eight and a maximum of ten pages, typewritten and double-spaced. A bibliography should be included at the end of the paper (citing references used in preparing your presentation.) Use Chicago Style in your Paper to cite the author/text and page number for material you draw directly from texts.

The presentation you prepare for your parish group (outlined in this paper) may include the following components:

- Prayer (your own or something composed by the person you are presenting)
- Historical Overview of the person’s life (including some reference to the historical times in which he / she lived.)
- Key themes you have discerned in their spirituality or writings.
- Primary Sources: a presentation of key writings / quotes by the person that highlight these themes.
- Personal reflections as to what this person’s spirituality and writings has meant to you.
- Reflection Questions that may help the participants reflect and dialogue about how this person’s spirituality resonates with their own situation in life.
- Any audio/visual materials that might accentuate the presentation of your material.
- Any other elements you would like to add. (Be creative in making this spiritual guide come alive!)

Plan out this presentation (using above components) to make up a two hour evening session in your parish. Hopefully, you will be able to actually use this in your future parish ministry.

The paper is due to be submitted during class on Tuesday, March 28, 2017.

Topics

“Presentation Paper” for a Lenten Evening of Reflection

Studying and writing about one of these people may help expand your horizons to appreciate the contribution towards Catholic Spirituality made by someone you haven't learned very much about previously. Your own work in this area may do the same for people in your future parish(es) with whom you will share this evening.

Aelred of Rievaulx

Bernard of Clairveaux

Catherine of Siena

Gregory the Great

Hildegarde of Bingen

Julian of Norwich

Thomas à Kempis

Due to the nature of this survey course, spanning 1300 years of history, we will not be able to give an exhaustive treatment to each of these persons' spiritual writings and legacy. Therefore, your personal research and writing can enrich your understanding of the significance of your chosen person's spiritual experience and teaching.
