October 14, 2016
POSITION TITLE: Diocesan Family and Youth Ministry Specialist

CLOSING DATE: November 11, 2016

POSITION TYPE: Full Time

SALARY: Thirty-five (35) hours per week. Salary in accordance to the Diocese of London Personnel Policy.

POSITION SUMMARY: Develop initiatives and strategies to support the diocesan community evangelize and catechize families, form them as domestic churches and respond to their growing and complex pastoral needs. Promote and support the Diocesan Vision of Youth Ministry within all parishes of the Diocese of London.

DUTIES/RESPONSIBILITIES:

- In light of the Diocesan Pastoral Plan and the Task Force for the Reorganization of the Parishes in the Diocese of London, develop a five-year strategic plan for Family and Youth Ministry
- Educate Pastoral Teams on the best practices associated with nurturing the domestic church and the vision of Youth Ministry
- Coordinate faith experiences for families and youth at a diocesan level
- Assist the Director of Lay Ecclesial Ministry in dealing with personnel issues involving those serving the domestic church and/or Youth Ministry
- Liaison with parish and school staff on matters related to forming the domestic church and Youth Ministry
- Development and implementation of ongoing assessment strategy to ensure effective diocesan practices
- Research and development in the area of the domestic church and Youth Ministry

QUALIFICATIONS: Degree in Theology, or pertinent related field. Minimum five years experience in a pastoral setting. Superior communication and facilitation skills. Prefer fluency in both English and French.

NOTES: Interested persons should submit a resume with a cover letter to the Diocese of London, infohr@dol.ca. Attention Selection Committee. Applications will be received until November 11, 2016. We thank all applicants for their interest; only those selected for an interview will be contacted.

Diocese of London
Attn: Selection Committee
1070 Waterloo Street
London, ON   N6A 3Y2