AT WESTERN UNIVERSITY
FALL 2015

HISTORICAL THEOLOGY 5121A
PATROLOGY
THURSDAYS 09:30-11:30
ST. PETER'S SEMINARY, ROOM 108

PROFESSOR: DR. R. PEREIRA
rperei2@uwo.ca
Office hours by appointment.

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION:

A historical and thematic exploration of the contributions made to the Tradition by writers of the first seven centuries known as the "Fathers of the Church". Attention will be paid to their contributions in such areas as the formation of the biblical canon, the development of Christian doctrine, and the picture of Christian life in the ancient period. This is a seminar course.

B. GOALS

This course will assist students to grow in the following knowledge, skills and attitudes:

Knowledge:

- To understand the centrality of the Paschal Mystery and God's action within salvation history and as expressed in the ancient Church.
- To learn of the key writers and theologians from the ancient period of the Church, through study of their lives, writings, and historical context.
- To understand the service rendered to the development of theology in the first centuries, especially in the "Golden Age" of the era.

- To gain a sense of the continuity of orthodox theology, making connections with other branches of theology, such as biblical, systematic and liturgical theology.

Skills:

- To be able to integrate the various realms of theology as found within the ancient Church.
- To be able to enter into theological dialogue, to listen to other opinions, to use philosophical concepts, and be able to see the large footprint of the ancient wisdom of the Fathers in the Church today.
- To be able to apply the historical-critical method to the ancient texts of the Patristic Era.
- To situate the writings in their context and to draw out their theological significance.

Attitudes:

- To embrace a sense of wonder in the mysteries of the faith and to accept that our comprehension will never be complete in light of the nature of theology.
- To embrace the ecumenical and universal spirit found in the ancient Christian Church
- To foster a profound appreciation for the Church Fathers, their holiness, their insight, and their extreme efforts to articulate and defend the faith.

C. ASSESSMENT

1. Mid-Term Test (30% of final mark)

Short answer format and in-class.

Date: Thursday, November 12th

2. Presentation (35% of final mark)

Seminars will take place during the last part of the course and will be an individual effort. Each student will do one seminar.

Each 45-minute seminar will be based upon the life of one Church Father and one theological issue or breakthrough for which he is famous.

A two-page class summary handout is required for distribution on the day of your seminar (point form is acceptable). Free photocopying is available, if the material is submitted to rperei@uwo.ca by the Monday before your seminar.

Topic sign-up will be done in-class, based upon a lottery system, on Thursday, September 17th.

3. Final Exam (35% of final mark)

Take-home exam format.

Exam will have a pastoral focus.

The exam will be discussed and distributed in-class on Thursday, December 3rd.

Due Date: digital copy due no later than Thursday, December 16th at noon.

F. UNIVERSITY REGULATIONS

Students are responsible for knowing the University's academic policies and regulations and any particularities of their own course of study. These can all be found at the University's website (<http://www.uwo.ca/univsec/handbook/appeals/scholoff.pdf>). Ignorance of these policies is not an excuse for any violation thereof. The following policies are particularly important to note:

Submission of Assignments: It is the responsibility of the student to organize his or her work so that the assignments are completed on time. A penalty of 10% of the value of the assignment will be deducted for each day it is overdue without permission.

Seminars cannot be late or rescheduled. Be prepared to present on your scheduled day. A missed seminar (or partially missed seminar) will earn a zero.

Plagiarism: Students must write their essays and assignments in their own words. Whenever students take an idea or a passage from another author, they must acknowledge their debt by quotation marks and/or footnotes. Plagiarism is a major academic offense. Students may be required to submit their work in electronic form for plagiarism checking.

Selection and Registration of Courses: Students are responsible for ensuring that their selection of courses is appropriate and accurately recorded, that all prerequisite course(s) have been successfully completed, and that they are aware of any anti-requisite course(s) that they have taken.
