

ST. PETER'S SEMINARY / KING'S UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
at Western University
Fall 2012

Systematic Theology 5111A - Fundamental Theology
Monday, 9:30-11:20, Room 108

John Dool, 432-5726, x272, jdool@uwo.ca
Office hours by appointment

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

A foundational course considering the nature of divine revelation, faith as humanity's response to God's revealing activity, the inspiration and interpretation of scripture, the nature of tradition, and theological method. (2 hours; antirequisite: the former Dogmatic Theology 101A)

B. GOALS

This course will assist students to grow in the following knowledge, skills and attitudes:

Knowledge:

To gain a sound understanding of how God's revelation in Jesus and the Spirit is made known to us through scripture and the tradition and how we respond to that revelation through both faith and reason.

To gain an understanding of the relationship of the roles of authority, scholarship, and personal exploration in the theological tradition.

To gain an understanding of the continuity and development of the theological tradition.

Skills:

To learn to balance the quest for certainty with the sometimes limited and developmental character of theological understanding.

To learn to integrate philosophical approaches into a theological framework.

To learn to reflect on how to express the Christian faith in the context of contemporary cultural challenges and opportunities.

Attitudes:

To grow in recognition of the benefit of shared dialogue and shared exploration of theological issues.

To exhibit a sense of wonder and a desire to probe more deeply into the mysteries of the faith.

C. ASSESSMENT

A reading and reflection paper on the nature of faith (source article on reserve in library); due Oct. 22 (5-6 pages, 6 pages maximum) (25%)

A reading and reflection paper on the nature of revelation (source article on reserve in library); due Nov. 12 (5-6 pages, 6 pages maximum) (25%)

A final, written examination, during the exam period (30%)

Participation in discussions (20%).

D. READINGS OR TEXTBOOKS

Required:

Yves Congar, The Meaning of Tradition, San Francisco: Ignatius Press, 2004 (available at the UWO bookstore). Additional required and recommended readings will be put on reserve in the library.

Documents of Vatican II

E. STRUCTURE OF THE COURSE

Week 1 (Sept. 10): Introduction; Philosophy and Theology

Week 2 (Sept. 17): Mystery, Revelation, and Faith

Required Readings: Dei Verbum (Dogmatic Constitution on Divine Revelation); Richard Gaillardetz and Catherine Clifford, "A Theology of Divine Revelation", Keys to the Council: Unlocking the Teaching of Vatican II, pp. 31-38.

Recommended Reading: John Haught, "Mystery", What is God?

Week 3 (Sept. 24): Tradition: Content and Dynamic Process

Required Readings: Congar, pp. 14-36

Week 4 (Oct. 1): Tradition and Traditions; The Spirit as Subject of Tradition

Required Readings: Congar, pp. 36-58

Week 5 (Oct. 8): Thanksgiving

Week 6 (Oct. 15): The Church as Subject of Tradition: Magisterium and the Faithful

Required Readings: Congar, pp. 58-78

Recommended Reading: Francis Sullivan, "Evaluating the Level of Authority Exercised in Documents of the Magisterium", Creative Fidelity; Aidan Nichols, "The Sense of the Faithful", The Shape of Catholic Theology.

Week 7 (Oct. 22): Scripture and Tradition; The Canon of Scripture

Required Readings: Congar, pp. 79-96

Week 8 (Oct. 29): Tradition as Historical; Development of Doctrine

Required Readings: Congar, pp. 105-19

Recommended Reading: Dulles, "The 'Irreformability' of Dogma", The Survival of Dogma

Week 9 (Nov. 5): The Contemporary Cultural Milieu

Required Readings: Gaudium et Spes, sections 1-22; John Dool, "Authenticity and Ecclesiology: Charles Taylor and the Post-Conciliar Challenge", pp.1-16

Recommended Reading: Charles Taylor, The Malaise of Modernity (also known as The Ethics of Authenticity)

Week 10 (Nov. 12): Understanding Vatican II

Required Readings: Dool, pp.16-21; John O'Malley, "Vatican II: Did Anything Happen?",

Theological Studies, v.67, 2006, pp. 3-33.

Week 11 (Nov. 19): Apologetics Today; The Nature of Dialogue

Required Readings: Francis Cardinal George, "Making All Things New: Notes on a New Apologetics", The Difference God Makes: A Catholic Vision of Faith, Communion, and Culture

Recommended Reading: Bishop Donald Bolen, "Giving an Account of Our Hope", Origins, v.41, no.6, June 2011

Week 12 (Nov. 26): Apologetics and Atheism

Required Readings: Richard Dawkins, selection from The God Delusion; Nicholas Lash, "Where Does the God Delusion Come From?"

Week 13 (Dec. 3): Conclusion and Review