ADVENT APPEAL

Dear Friends of St. Peter's Seminary,

This year's Advent Appeal image is at once familiar, a nativity scene, with the Blessed Virgin attentive to the Son of God, and a sleeping St. Joseph outside the stable. In his sleep, St. Joseph is receiving messages from God in a dream to be aware of the threat King Herod is making against the life of the infant Jesus, to protect his family from harm and to be ready to take action.

With your quiet commitment to touch the lives of our future priests, permanent deacons and lay ecclesial ministers, you demonstrate care for our Church for today and tomorrow.

Through your past generosity, the Advent Appeal has grown to be a critical resource that provides for the formation of faithful, well-prepared servant leaders for Catholic parishes and institutions, in the Diocese of London and across Canada.

We invite you once again to share in the Seminary's vital mission, to the extent that you are able. Be assured of our continued prayers for our donors and supporters, and during this time of awaiting the birth of the Saviour of the World, please keep the men and women of St. Peter's Seminary in your prayers.
